

Targeting the Small Boys On Corruption

Wednesday, 17 May 2006

The Bursar of the Saint Joseph's Covent Secondary School, Bockarie Kombay, is now at the Pademba Road Prisons serving a two year sentence for siphoning Le 3.3 million to his personal pocket, an amount given to him by the school authority to deposit into the school's bank...

The Bursar of the Saint Joseph's Covent Secondary School, Bockarie Kombay, is now at the Pademba Road Prisons serving a two year sentence for siphoning Le 3.3 million to his personal pocket, an amount given to him by the school authority to deposit into the school's bank account.

Read more...